

THE FUTURE ROLE OF THE EU ETS

5 October 2012

EURELECTRIC Meeting Centre
Blvd de l'Imperatrice 66, 1000 Brussels

PROGRAMME

8h30	Welcome Coffee
9h00	Opening Speeches
	Welcome EURELECTRIC's commitment to the ETS as the key policy instrument for driving investment in carbon reduction Back-loading and structural measures: two steps to strengthen the EU ETS	Theodoulos MESIMERIS Environment Officer, Ministry of Agriculture, Natural Resources & Environment, Republic of Cyprus Hans ten BERGE Secretary-General, EURELECTRIC Jos DELBEKE Director-General, DG Climate Action, European Commission
	Cost-effective decarbonisation: the role of the EU ETS
10h00	The EU ETS at a crossroads: the way forward Issues for the design of an EU 2030 Climate Package – how to secure the ETS as a key driver policy? Scenarios for the ETS carbon price Panel Debate	Giuseppe MONTESANO Head of European Regulation, Environmental & Regulatory Scenarios, Enel Group John McELROY Director of Policy & Public Affairs, RWE Npower Chairman EURELECTRIC SG Flexible Mechanisms Fabien ROQUES Senior Director, European Power & Carbon IHS CERA Professor Denny ELLERMAN Director of the climate policy research unit, European University Institute's Robert Schuman Centre for Advanced Studies Cecilia KELLBERG Senior Advisor Environment & Climate Policy, Svensk Energi Bill KYTE Senior Advisor Climate Change, E.ON EURELECTRIC Chief Advisor, International Climate Policy Director, International Electricity Partnership Chris DAVIES Member of the European Parliament Committee Environment, Public Health & Food Safety, European Parliament Jesse SCOTT Head of Environment & Sustainable Development Policy Unit, EURELECTRIC
	Moderator

11h45 Coffee break

International commitments on climate action: the role of the ETS

12h00 Maintaining the credibility of the EU ETS as a model and basis for climate action in third countries – Moving smoothly towards an international market

Carbon market linking between the EU and Australia

Panel Debate

Moderator

Jean-Yves CANEILL

Head of Climate Policy, Electricité de France

Robert OWEN-JONES

Assistant Secretary, Global Markets Branch
Department of Climate Change & Energy Efficiency, Australian Government

Olivia HARTRIDGE

Vice President, Morgan Stanley
International Emissions Trading Association

Sanjeev KUMAR

Senior Associate, E3G

Andrei MARCU

Senior Advisor & Head of Carbon Market Forum, CEPS

Mukund BHAGWAT

Policy Director Energy & Climate, Eurometaux

Simon BLAKEY

Special Envoy, EUROGAS

13h00 End

Visit our website
www.eurelectric.org